Preventing Diabetic Foot Complications

November is American Diabetes Month. In the last two decades, the prevalence of diabetes has increased significantly. It's estimated that 37.3 million people in the U.S. have diabetes (one in five). What's more, of that number, 8.5 million have the disease but have not been diagnosed.

Fall Harvest Salad with Butternut Squash and Apple

Fall harvest salad with roasted butternut squash and apple is the only salad recipe you need this fall or winter. It's healthy, wholesome, and nourishing.

Ingredients:

- ½ large butternut squash, cut into ½-inch cubes (4 cups)
- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 1 teaspoon Italian seasoning
- 1 teaspoon garlic powder
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon black pepper
- 1 (5 oz.) package baby kale
- 1 medium apple, cut into ½ inch pieces
- ½ cup pomegranate seeds (seeds from ½ medium pomegranate)
- ¼ cup feta cheese, crumbled
- ½ cup pepitas (no shell pumpkin seeds), toasted

Apple Cider Vinaigrette:

- 2 tablespoons apple cider vinegar
- ¼ cup olive oil
- ½ tablespoon Dijon mustard
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon ground black pepper

Instructions:

1. Preheat oven to 400 F. In a large mixing bowl, toss together butternut squash, olive oil, Italian seasoning, garlic powder, salt, and pepper. Transfer to a quarter-sheet and roast for 30 minutes until tender.
2. Combine baby kale, roasted butternut squash, apple, pomegranate seeds, feta cheese, and toasted pepitas in a large serving bowl.
3. Whisk vinegar, olive oil, mustard, salt, and pepper in a small mixing bowl. Pour the desired amount of dressing over the salad and toss to combine.

Notes:

How to toast pumpkin seeds: Add ½ cup raw pepitas (no shell pumpkin seeds), ½ tablespoon olive oil, 1 teaspoon honey, and ¼ teaspoon salt in a small mixing bowl. Stir together to combine. On a parchment-lined quarter sheet baking pan, arrange pepitas in a single layer and bake for 8-10 minutes in a preheated 350 F oven.

Make ahead instructions: To make this fall harvest salad ahead of time, roast the butternut squash, prep the ingredients (except for the apple due to browning), and make the dressing. Store in separate airtight containers. When ready to serve, chop up an apple, assemble the salad, and toss it with the dressing.

How to store: This salad is best eaten fresh since the apple cider vinaigrette will start to soften the kale. If you have leftovers, keep them for 1-2 days in an airtight container in the refrigerator.
